

Friends of the Library gain experience!

When you join us, you'll:

- Have the opportunity to become a board member of a non-profit organization — a great resume builder.
- Obtain work experience & references.
- Manage the purchasing of furniture & shelving through Friends' funds.
- Manage annual book drives & our ongoing book sale.
- Plan & lead fundraising events.
- Sponsor lively cultural events & educational programs for Library users.

“A welcoming place offering a sense of community!”

For 75 years, we have been providing the Stickney & Forest View communities with a wealth of resources. We have persevered, & today we are proud to say that we are ready & looking forward to another 75 years.

Who are the Friends of the Library?

The Friends of the Stickney-Forest View Public Library District is a non-profit, grass-roots organization dedicated to promoting our Library as an essential institution of our society. Our volunteer members advocate, educate, & raise funds on behalf of the Library, its patrons, & the larger Stickney-Forest View community.
